FIVE LOWER CHAKRAS OF BODY

EASTERSTAR

In this body are contained all forms of knowledge. In this body live all the Divine Entities. In this Body are found all the attributes of Brahmanada (the Divine). In the drop of water is found the ocean and in the ocean is found the droplet, who can know this mystery without the aid of the Sat Guru (spiritual preceptor).

Shiva Samhita: "Focusing on any of the Chakras results in specific benefits peculiar to each Chakra. By focusing on the ajna chakra all the benefits of all the lower chakras are acquired plus those specific to ajna"

This chart is as described by Paramahans Maharishi Mehi and rendered as you see here by Shri Santsevi Ji Maharaj

"That a droplet is contained within the ocean is known to all; that the ocean also is contained within the droplet is known in experience to the rarest of rare few" - Sant Kabir Sahab

"In this body are all kinds of knowledge, in this body reside all the divine deities, in this body are all the holy places of pilgrimage and all the attributes of the Macrocosm; but these are known only with Guru's guidance" - Jnan Sankalini Tantra
